REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST IN SCRIPTURE
WHO IS JESUS CHRIST
2017 - 2018

I. Instructor:
Dr. Stevenson

II. Course Description:

The purpose of these courses is to give students a general knowledge and appreciation of the Sacred Scriptures. Through their study of the Bible they will come to encounter the living Word of God, Jesus Christ. In the course they will learn about the Bible, authored by God through Inspiration, and its value to people throughout the world. If they have not been taught this earlier, they will learn how to read the Bible and will become familiar with the major sections of the Bible and the books included in each section. The students will pay particular attention to the Gospels, where they may grow to know and love Jesus Christ more personally.

Furthermore, students will be introduced to the mystery of Jesus Christ, the living Word of God, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity. In this course students will understand that Jesus Christ is the ultimate Revelation to us from God. In learning about who he is, the students will also learn who he calls them to be.
III. Course Requirements:

A. EXAMS
Students will exhibit mastery of chapter material. Exams will usually consist of several objective sections and a short answer section. Exams usually carry the heaviest point value of all quarterly graded materials.

B. QUIZZES
Students will exhibit the possession and understanding of chapter content. Since preparation for quizzes is less demanding than for exams, quizzes will carry considerably less value than exams.

C. HOMEWORK
Students will complete occasional assignments that are to be completed outside of classroom time, or during classroom time, if such time is granted by the instructor. These assignments will reinforce and supplement the materials presented and discussed in class. Since such assignments require minimal effort, homework assignments will singularly carry the least point value, but cumulatively will impact significantly quarterly grades.

D. REFLECTIONS
Students will complete occasional reflection assignments. Such assignments are usually a series of open-ended questions or prompts that attempt to initiate each student to internalize and personally integrate course topics into his or her own life. Since such personal reflection responses can differ from student to student, the instructor’s grading is naturally somewhat subjective. Therefore, the instructor assigns grades not upon what the student thinks, but rather that the student thinks. Generally, the reflections carry the same weight as homework assignments. A participation grade is factored into the reflection grade, as well. (NOTE: Though the instructor wishes to respect the private reflections of all students, he legally cannot and does not guarantee confidentiality.)

E. FINAL EXAMS
At the end of each semester, the student will exhibit a mastery of all course material.
